

Guidelines for New Green Strategy

“Guidelines for New Green Strategy” was instituted in January 2006, with its clear indication of the green creation target, as a guideline to guide the green creation by the people including citizen of Tokyo and private businesses, as well as to indicate the development direction of the bases and axis for greenery by a public project. In the guidelines, new initiatives in preparation of the green creation are shown as follows (from b. to f).