

BUSINESS HUB

Tokyo has numerous business centers where the headquarters of many domestic and international enterprises are found. Each with its respective color, as one area faces renewal, other areas go on functioning to ensure that the economic vitality of Tokyo never stops. Their seamless functions support the growth of Tokyo.

Otemachi-Marunouchi-Yurakucho
Japan's first business district. Recent years have seen a transformation of this area into a lively, bustling space.

Shinjuku
After a half-century of development on the site of the former Yodobashi water purification plant, the business district is entering a period of renewal.

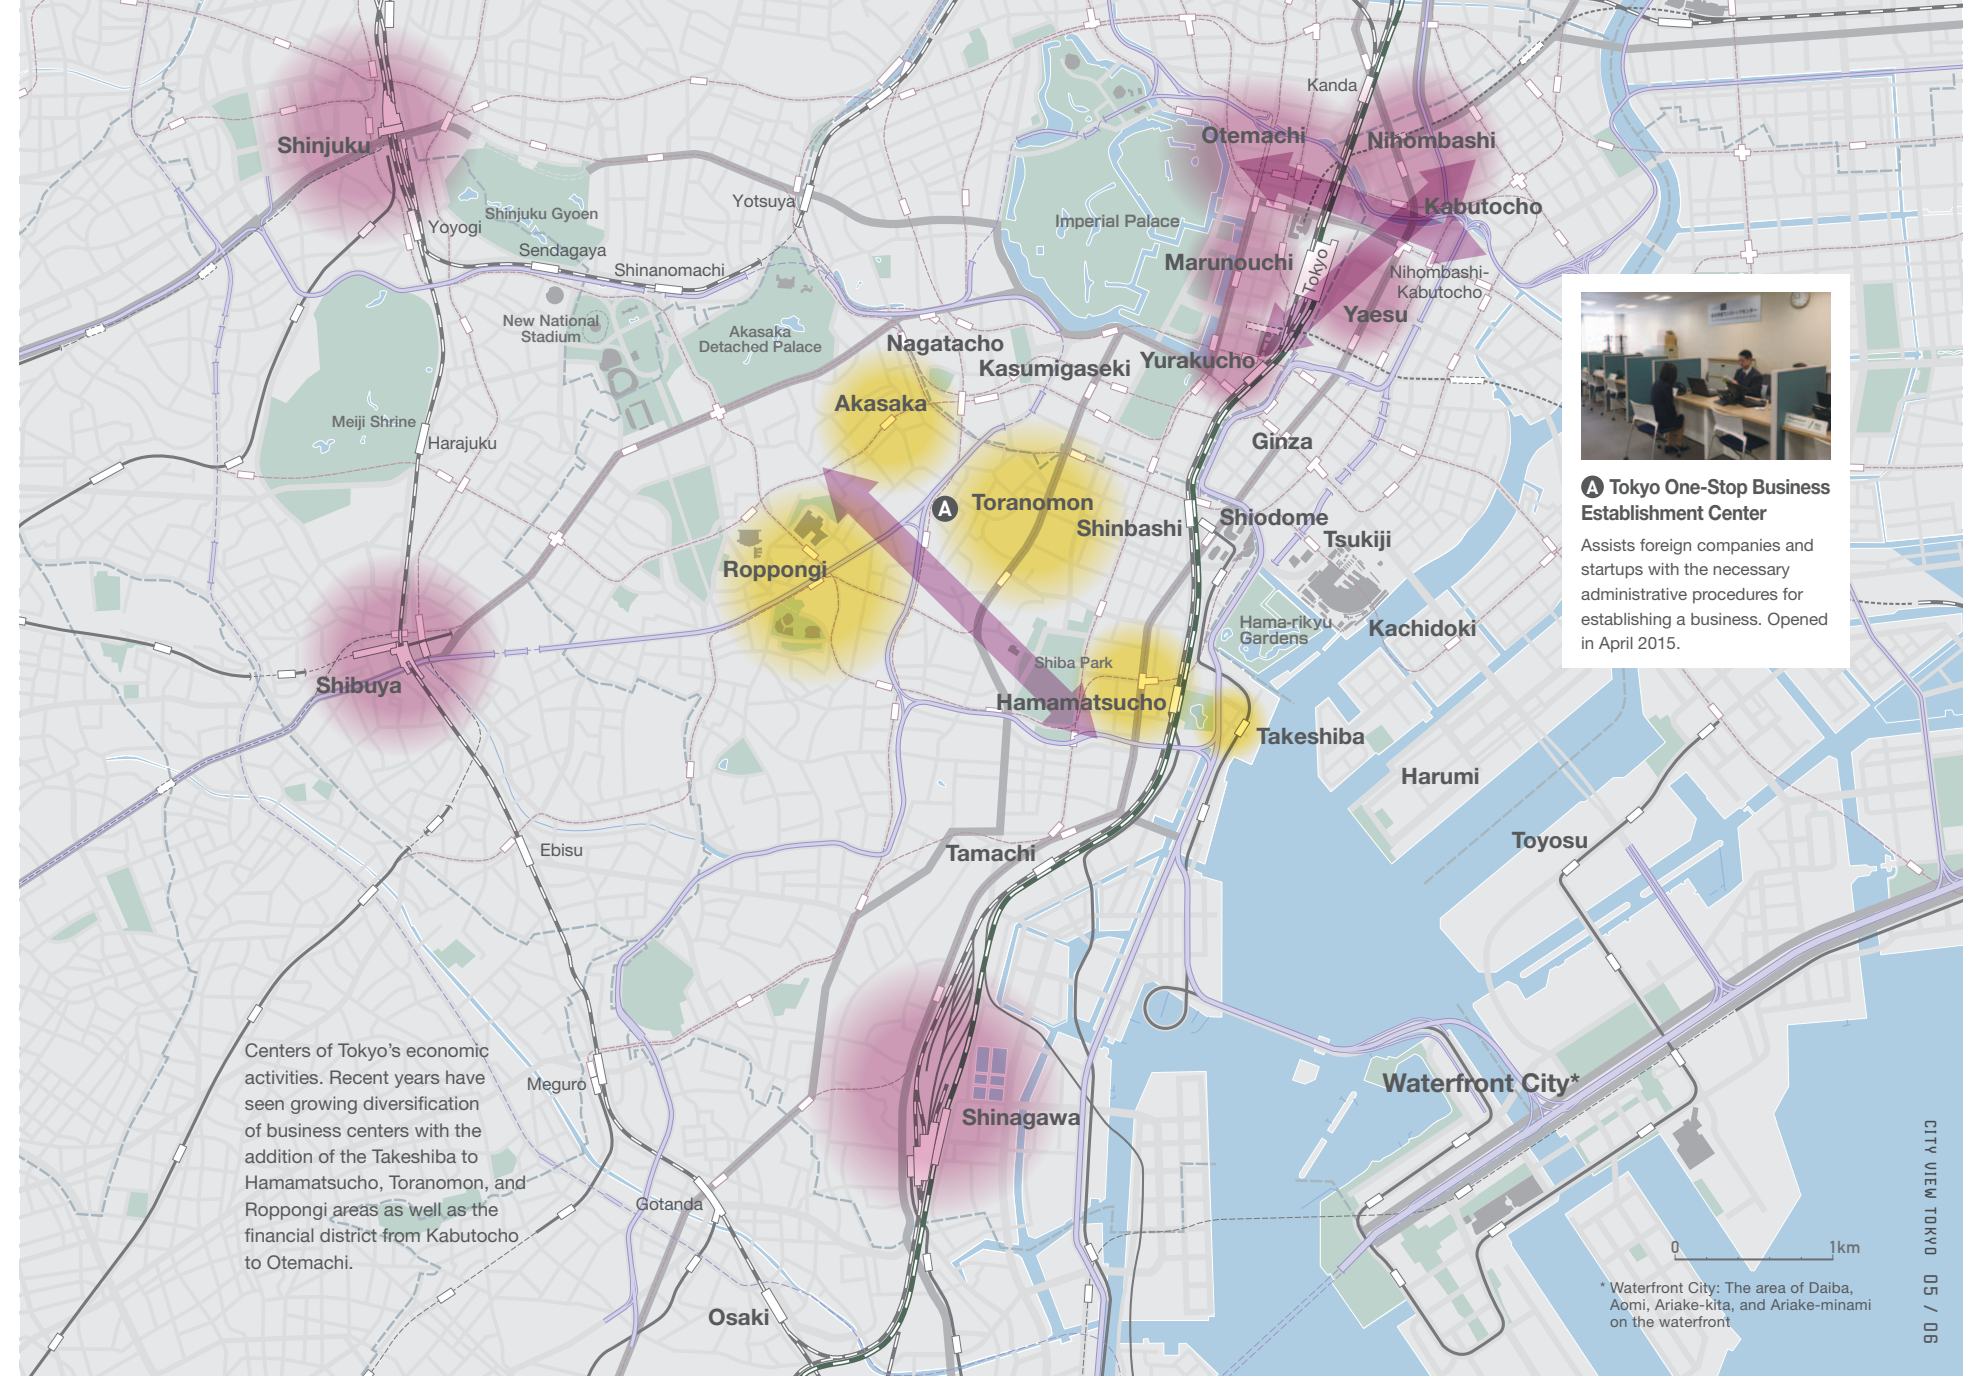

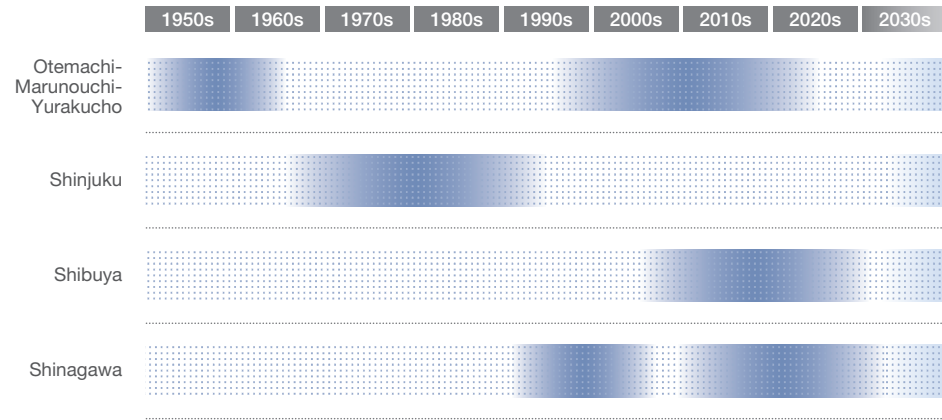

Shibuya
This dynamic center of culture is also attracting IT ventures.

Shinagawa
Located near Haneda Airport, developments are underway to turn this area into a center of international exchange.

Development periods of major Tokyo business areas

Centers of Tokyo's economic activities. Recent years have seen growing diversification of business centers with the addition of the Takeshiba to Hamamatsucho, Toranomon, and Roppongi areas as well as the financial district from Kabutocho to Otemachi.

A Tokyo One-Stop Business Establishment Center
Assists foreign companies and startups with the necessary administrative procedures for establishing a business. Opened in April 2015.

* Waterfront City: The area of Daiba, Aomi, Ariake-kita, and Ariake-minami on the waterfront